Damien: Billionaire Bad Boy Romance

Synopsis

LOOK BEFORE YOU LEAP, DEAR AUDREY. IT HURTS WHEN YOU HIT ROCK BOTTOM. Damien isn't the guy you take home to meet your parents. He's the guy they warned you about. But the day I meet Audrey—my new mousy secretary—I can't get her out of my head. I want to strip her of her frumpy clothes and discover what's underneath. Audrey tries to resist me. She knows I'm no good. Too bad I've already decided that she's mine to take. Audrey is my boss. He's not a guy I should ever get involved with. I know his reputation. He sleeps with his secretaries until he gets bored and moves on to the next without one looking back. But I can't say no when he starts to seduce me. When he takes me on his desk and against the door of his office. When he guides me into his home, his bed, his heart. Before I know what's happening, I'm falling for him. The only question is—Will he catch me?

Customer Reviews

I understand the saying you get what you pay for but I've gotten plenty of ninety nine cent books that were so much better where do I start first the hero was a complete jerk I like an alpha male but this guy was unbelievably mean bordering on cruel so arrogant and the heroine was a complete doormat I have no problem with her being submissive but to be told to shut up and your stupid and the way you dress is hideous thats ridiculous and after the lack luster sex which was described as if it was written by someone whose never had sex and thinks this is how it goes it went way down hill from there I'm one of those people who has to finish a book it was so hard I told myself I'll just skip through the boring parts so basically after the sex scene I read nothing because it got really bad after that until the very end there were so many inconsistency with this book the characters feelings changed on a dime and the whole car crash, kidnapping hospital escape was so fake I will never read anything from this author again not just because the book was bad but because I base part of the reason I buy books is based on the reviews and the reviews were so far off the mark that they were either written by the authors friends or they got something free for giving the book great reviews I feel like I was lied too it was so bad I'm not even going to attempt to read the free book included I would give it no stars if that was allowed save your money for something else

Bad Boy Boyfriend? Bad writing; thankfully I used Kindle Unlimited so I only lost time. Does the author even understand what a CEO does, or their "secretary" for that matter? What strength versus whining /nasty really is? I gave a star because there was not a minus available. Sorry I really tried but enough is enough. I just couldn't stop the internal dialogue calling BS when the whole point of reading fiction is to turn off my brain...as a real CEO that is.

So bad. :( The female in this story is so pathetic, I could care less if she gets the guy. I skimmed through most of the book because it was just, well, frankly it was dumb. There's a baseline of a good story plot here, it's just not executed in this book.

I have never needed a book to be over with faster than this one. I could not believe this author wrote and published a story that read like their first try at writing. I have nothing to recommend for this except that the plot was decent but the characters, dialogue and action lacked believability. Damien was supposedly a CEO of a company that he never actually did any work for and poor misguided

Audrey was his new frumpy secretary. I'm sorry, I meant doormat. Damien was not an Alpha anything or even desirable as a lover. He was cruel, unfeeling and offensive. Audrey had no common sense or enough book sense to run, not walk away from her job and boss. Too many inconsistencies. The dialogue and interaction amongst the various characters was so juvenile and irritating that I was skipping over paragraphs because there were boring and/ or not needed as it brought nothing to the plot or current situation. Not a book I enjoyed or would recommend unless I wanted to put someone quickly to sleep. I received an ARC in exchange for an honest review.

Somebody Anybody help me understand this book, this story has a great plot good action, mystery ,suspense, bad guy on point and the bad boy rich guy definitely on point. I truly love the plot of this story but here's the thing that turn me all the way around, tell me who in the world the fake world, the make believed world even the hallucinated world and most of all the world of reality would think like the character Audrey nobody tell me who feels OK living in the worse part of town especially after going to college to better yourself then you feel guilty when you finally get the high end job with the high end pay so guilty that you don't buy decent clothes or shoes also because growing up you ate at soup kitchens so you don't go to nice restaurants just eat pizza or hamburgers for a treat, now mind you we are talking about the mind of a woman I could not wrap my head around this no kind of way no woman think or act the way this woman is portrayed to be honest I was offended. I imagined she was suppose to be a submissive but that's bulls*** even mentally challenged people don't think the way this author wrote this woman I just can't fathom this it spoiled this very good story. Now the bonus book that's good story writing at its best I've read other books by this author I just can't believe this book came from the same person and I don't know what to rate this book so sad ^ç ^ç ^ç.

I was given an arc of this book for an honest review. The story outline for this book was great and I did enjoy most of the book, but sometimes I felt that there wasn't any chemistry between Damien and Audrey. Damien was sometimes downright cruel towards her and like I said previously that sometimes I just didnt feel my chemistry between them at all what so ever. The last chapter of the book I felt was rushed like so much stuff into this little chapter they finally expressed their love for each other,he was giving her everything she ever wanted and then the end I felt like she could have stretched it out instead of it just all being put together in one chapter to hurry and finish the book.
