Synopsis

With the sudden disappearance of a local teen in Hooks Harbor, an odd mix of guests arrives at Holiday Hideaway. While guests send deadly glares at each other and the owner of the new restaurant threatens Hannahâ€™s business, she tries to juggle everything. ## Customer Reviews

I'm so glad I found this series last year! Delightful, very entertaining and well written! While each book is a stand alone cozy mystery, I think everyone would most enjoy it being read in order. I sure hope we will see many more mysteries in this series!

Lyndsey Cole has done it again with another Hooked and Cooked Mystery! I really enjoyed getting to know more details on some of the characters. I hope that Samantha sticks around she cracks me up. I will look forward to the next adventure with Hannah!

As always a great book to read, it kept me on the edge of my seat the whole time. Can't wait to see who you introduce into the next book.

A fun and easy read. Always lots of good characters, actually good and bad characters. I can visualize the surroundings and would love to visit if it was a really true place. Good fun.

I absolutely love this series of books in the "Hooked and Cooked" cozy mystery series. I will also check out her other books. She is a wonderful writer and I love her writing style.

Each book with Hannah and Nellie is more enjoyable than the last one. Nellie is such a good dog. She is especially good with Olivia. The other characters are well written also.
