No Scone Unturned (Lexy Baker Cozy Mystery Series Book 12)

Synopsis

Why did someone kill Olive Pendleton and hide her body? When bakery owner Lexy Baker and her posse of iPad toting grandmas witness a murder remotely through the camera of a drone, they go straight to Lexy's homicide detective husband, Jack, to report the crime. But with no body and no crime reported, Jack can't do a thing, leaving Lexy and her grandmother no alternative than to solve the murder themselves. Armed with nothing but their gigantic patent leather purses and a dogged determination to see justice done, the ladies dodge a pack of overzealous Pekeapoos, nosey neighbors and an ornery husband in order to flush out Olive's killer before he kills again.

Book 12 finished in 2 days because life sometimes gets in the way. Lexy Baker and her Grandmother Nan and the ladies are over at Lexy's house one afternoon when Ina wants to demonstrate how the drone she borrowed from her Grandson Jason works. Shoving it out the window and not being very good at the control, the drone flies over to a house where Lexy will be catering a brunch in a few days. Next door to that house is the house of recluse author Olive Pendleton. Lexy and the ladies observe someone trying to get a Pekeapoo off the roof and is hit with a baseball bat falling 3 stories to her death. A murder, who better to ask than Lexy's husband Jack a homicide detective. However as much as Jack tries to find out there has been no murder, no body and Jack can't begin any investigation. So the totting grandmas begin to search for the murder, they encounter a pack of Pekeapooos, nosey neighbors, a husband that you are sure is the murderer and of course a fan club. You will find yourself laughing out loud, and holding your breath, but above all Leighann Dobbs has captured you and I promise leaves you wanting more of Lexy and the Grandmas.

This series is excellent and this book continued to prove Leighann Dobbs is a talented writer. I found the storyline fun and easy to follow. If you are new to the series, you could read this as a standalone but I would recommend reading the whole series.

I love clean cozy mysteries especially about senior sleuths. Older people are sometimes considered useless but they are usually alert and smart. They give the stories humor and character. This murder was different because they had no body until the end. Ms. Doobs always writes about current things and the idea of using a drone was brilliant.

THIS SERIES WAS WRITTEN JUST FOR ME. LOL I WILL BE LOOKING FOR #13 FOR SURE. I LOVE THE COZY MYSTERIES BECAUSE I KNOW THEY WILL BE CLEAN, FUNNY, AND JUST PLAIN GOOD. I READ TO RELAXE AND ENJOY A BOOK I CAN PASS ONTO MY GRANDKIDS TO READ AND NOT WORRY ABOUT THE LANGUAGE AMONG OTHER THINGS. I HAVE A PET PEEVE THAT JUST DRIVES ME NUTS. WHEN I AM IN A GOOD PART OF A STORY, I DO NOT WANT TO BE INTERRUPTED BY RECIPES. LEIGHANN IS SMART AND SAVES THE FOR THE END OF THE BOOK.. THANK YOU SO MUCH FOR WRITING BOOKS THAT KEEP ME ENTERTAINED..

I have read all twelve books in this series. Its one if my favorites. I love the characters, Lexy, her Nan's, Ida, Helen, and Ruth. I really like how these four senior citizens are such a big part of this series. I hope this series goes on and on. Read this series, you won't be disappointed :)

Although I usually like these type of mysteries, it was hard to take seriously. Our heroes witness a murder and take forty five minutes to report it. Nothing ever seems serious, or taken seriously and the style of humor, if that was the intent is weak. Glad I only paid 99 cents.

Lexy and her cohorts are at it again!! Fun, at the times even laugh out loud funny, this whole series is delightful! Very well written and very fast paced, read one book or read them all! They will definitely have you captivated!

Another Winner Leighann Dobbs! I love the Lexy Baker mysteries. And now I can't wait for the next one! Twists and turns and surprises throughout makes the page turning faster and faster. I finished this book in record time because I couldn't believe what each page gave me and had to see the next page just to see where it was going! And while you are going page to page you laugh out loud when Lexy's grandma, Nan and the ladies detective club just have to investigate a murder they actually saw happen and Lexy's husband police detective, Jack can't do anything since there is no report, no body or anything he can get involved with. And then there are four other ladies from a fan club for the author who lives in the house and the ladies saw murdered, or so they thought, is she or isn't she? I can't wait to see what these four new ladies have to do with Nan and her posse! This is a well-written must read and soooo much fun! I keep reading them so fast, I have to wait too long for a new installment!
