Customer Reviews

Story was too similar to Nicole Snow's Outlaw's Vow. And by similar I mean the SAME STORY!!!

As I was reading this I swore I had read it before from a different author!! Very shameful!

I truly disliked reading the same plot another author had already published before this book. Shame on you Zoey Parker.

Blaze and Olivia's story starts with that first stolen kiss, but that kiss got Blaze a butt whooping from her brother Luke. So they both go their separate ways and it takes 5 years before they're thrown back together by a surprise neither was expecting. This book has lots of gunfire, hot sex, traitors, and heroes too, LUV my biker books.

Terrible. Any book that has the h losing her virginity to the H and it doesn't hurt and she is in bliss. Spare me. And she has endless amounts of sex and orgasms right after is just so stupid.

This book was plagiarized from Nicole Snow's Outlaw book. Scene for Scene. The kiss, the backyard rumble, shooting the hero, running him out of town, the wedding, the church. All the same with just a very few changes as to the names and titles. Father versus Brother. Presidents' names. Otherwise same book. Zoey Parker should be reported and banned from publishing. Authors work hard on their books and their work should be respected not plagiarized like Ms Parker has done to Nicole Snow's work. In this case imitation is NOT the sincerest form of flattery, it is pure theft and should not be tolerated.

I would definitely recommend A Sinful Vow to anyone who has found that they enjoy MC romances that feature a dominant alpha male badass who falls for a beautiful girl that tests his commitment to the lifestyle of booze and drugs that he was immersed in. It was a joy to watch their love blossom through hot sex and the adversity of some wild and dark scenarios.

A Sinful Vow was definitely sinful! I couldn't imagine being forced into a wedding like Olivia. It took a lot of guts for her to agree to help out her brother, and man, she was not happy about it at first. But once she and Blaze rekindled their hot romance, it became an exciting adventure full of sex and gunfire. Not one to miss!
