Customer Reviews

Though we will probably never come across Reacher in one of Diane Capri's novels, the hunt is interesting, as is their speculation about his terrible character! They sift through the clues and discover that things they blamed on Jack were not things he actually did, much as Child's books often develop: Jack is accused, threatened, mistreated....and it is all a mistake, always! But the fun is that Jack doesn't take it lying down. Diane hits with the same gritty violence we find in the original series, and it is done with both humor and good plotting. Gaspar, her underling, has his as yet undiscovered skeletons in the closet, and Kim is interesting but you know there is something about her we will discover as this series goes on. Meanwhile, I recommend, for Reacher fans, this book, as well as the first, "You Don't Know Jack". I haven't read the short stories in her series yet, and probably won't. I need a full book when I buy a title. I look forward to the next full novel, and hope it plays off another of the series we have read before, by Child.

It appears the writer wants to capitalize on the success of the Jack Reacher series. Well, she got me to buy two of her books, but I couldn't even finish the second one. There's just no point in the book... there's no real conclusion, which opens the door for the next book to be written (and bought).

It was way too wordy, filled with unimportant details and frustrating ideas and conclusions that never materialized, very disappointing that "Reacher" never showed up in the book, I won't read another in the series

A good attempt but not anywhere near as entertaining as Lee Child's work. Repetitive and slow, this book can be ignored with no worry of disrespecting Jack Reacher.

TERRIBLE!!! Did NOT finish; LOVE Lee Child series, nice to read re characters he created in various Jack Reacher novels, BUT this woman can't write! plot drags on, illogical to the EXTREME (yes, many books require some 'suspension of disbelief', this one requires you to be gullible enough to fall for Nigerian internet scams every 10 pages). Started skimming early on, just got worse and worse. give refunds?

A bit hohum..... too much description and not enough action. Story lacking destination..... tends to miss creating the tension for the reader with subsequent surprise elements.

If you like Jack Reacher, you'll like this book. It's an amazing thing the author did. She has really grabs your interest about Reacher. So, if you don't know him, you better find out what it's all about.

As a 'Jack Reacher tragic" I had a little trouble coming to grips with the fact that Reacher may turn out to be a bad guy. I did however enjoy the way that the story was put together, and how it was kept moving. I will definitely be looking at other books from this author.
