The Tide

Synopsis

Captain Dominic Holland leads a crew of skilled covert operatives and talented scientific personnel. He's taken them to all corners of the Earth to protect the United States from biological and chemical warfare. When his CIA handler, Meredith Webb, gives him a mission to investigate a disturbing lead on a laboratory based out of an abandoned oil rig, they discover the most terrifying threat to mankind they've ever faced - a genetically engineered biological weapon called the Oni Agent. Back in the United States, Meredith discovers a frightening connection between the CIA and the Oni Agent. But her investigations are short-lived when the agent spreads and brings mankind to its knees. Cities burn as it turns humans into warped creatures hell-bent on destruction. Dominic and Meredith vow to do everything they can to combat the agent and find a cure. But will their efforts be enough to turn the tide - or is humanity's fate already sealed?

Customer Reviews

This book is AMAZING! I couldn't put it down as I just HAD to know what would happen next! The story opens with a lab demonstration in Japan, using prisoners of war. The aim is to create a horrific bioweapon to seek revenge for the bombing of Hiroshima and Nagasaki... Then we meet Meredith, a middle-aged woman in the CIA... she finds something that doesn't add up. She calls Dom Holland and his Hunters to investigate... and there are outbreaks of violence occurring in major cities...Anthony Melchiorri side steps into a different type of zombie story but remains true to himself in that there are biotechnologies responsible. He is one my favorite new authors who writes stories that are different but with real people as heroes. The writing is smooth and solid, the characters are well-developed and very memorable, the action goes into breakneck speed, and the story is a different take on the usual zombie stories. We are taken to somewhere in Japan, to an abandoned oil rig, and then back to Maryland. It's great to see an older woman as a lead character who seeks the truth no matter what happens to her. Meredith is someone you know you can trust and rely upon when all heck is breaking loose! Dom Holland is a true Patriot who makes it his life career to defend the US and its citizens from any and all attacks by chemical or biological weapons. Even Dom's daughter Kara and their golden retriever Maggie rise to the occasion to protect the weaker people around them. There are other characters who capture your heart and have you hoping they will achieve what they hope to achieve... find what is causing the "Skulls" (like armored zombies) and then race for the cure... The story was a great read! I found myself thinking "just ONE more chapter and I'll go to bed"...
