Ghosts Of America 11 - Stay True

Synopsis

This is our 11th book in the series. Just like the previous books everything here is 100% true. These are not fictitious stories, but real accounts of paranormal events. Some of these accounts are:- An attempt to make one of the tenants stay true to his girlfriend by the house spirit.- A swelled up ceiling and its stench in an apartment that exposed mysterious truths at the end.- Playful ghosts in an old beautiful home about which the current tenant found out died tragically just several months before the new family moved in.- A rusty beaten-up chipped hearse with only one headlight that appeared out of nowhere, with a driver that came out, banged on the house door, shouted out, and honked the horn before disappearing into nowhere.- A demonic looking woman ghost who was attacking a man in his sleep.- Mysterious ghostly happenings that took place at an old closed down motel, which used to be an old "way station". The 115 stories in this book are a small selection of the stories from our site ghostsofamerica.com.

Customer Reviews

The testimonials of all the contributors are wonderful but the stories desperately need to be word smoothed. There are extra unnecessary words in sentences. Many are sorely in need of editing and polishing. I understand that the idea is to keep the contributors words the same as was submitted however, it is severely irritating to the reader.

I loved the true stories. They were well told. I would recommend this book to anyone who loves reading true ghost stories.

ALLWAYS FUN READ, LOVE HER BOOKS. BOUGHT THEM ALL.

I have all of these books, they're great!
