Customer Reviews

A proud line of Kindred, the Ravnos claim their founder to be one of the Second Generation, a childer and lover of none other than Caine himself. This book describes in the words of an Elder or possibly an Ancillae of the clan the source of the animosity between Ravnos and Gangrel, which perhaps cliché, is a tale of love spurned. Also contains an array of Disciplines, Merits, Flaws and Archetypes to play.

I have been a Vampire player for about 3 years and I have never had so much fun in playing any other clan as the Ravnos... They are cunning and tricky, everybody must always watch out about where they are and what they do. They steal you while you aren't looking and they lie to you like it's really the truth. The Ravnos are powerful beings, with their chemistry powers. I appreciate the new merits and flaws that they put in the book and to all Vampire players... BUY THIS BOOK!!!

They're called thieves, liars, nomads, vagabonds. And they're proud of each of those titles. Cb:

Ravnos offers insight on the most myterious of the clans for those who can read between the lines. Among the Romany, the idea a tale passes holdes much more importance than its resemblance to truth. Apparently threatened by a turmoil due by the increasing number of gorgio embraced recently, the elders still manage to cloak themselves in shadows and hide their secret agendas. Find the pulling strings. Discover the plans of Ramiq. Illusions and neonates cover secrets and schemes far deadlier...
