I have the 4th edition and I actually compared it to the 5th edition. My findings after comparing the table of contents then actually going to the university bookstore, I found the 5th edition has less pages due to the authors combining a few of the chapters. All of the chapters of 4th edition are pretty much the same, just moved up, down or combined, to make the 5th edition. Saved myself a lot of money. Purchase the 5th edition if you don't feel like comparing the two books or that's just your choice. I listed the comparison below for your follow-up review, I hope it helps.5th Edition Table of Contents:Part One: Human Relations and You... (same as 4th ed)Chapter 1: Human Relations: A Background... (same as 4th ed)Chapter 2: Self-Concept and Self-Esteem in Human Relations...
