Clearing: A Guide To Liberating Energies Trapped In Buildings And Lands

Synopsis

Working from the premise that every natural and human-made space has an energy of its own that can physically and emotionally affect anyone in that space, this introduction to ancient practices of environmental shamanism "or transformation of the energy of spaces" explains in practical terms how to liberate old, unproductive energy that may be stored in any space, making room for new vibrations to circulate and increase inhabitants' well-being. Combining timeless traditions with the author's vast experience in energy transformation, this manual offers step-by-step guidance for recognizing and manipulating the unseen forces that affect everyday life. Real-life examples, guided exercises, annotated endnotes, and an extensive glossary to supplement case studies making the book both informative and accessible for practical use.

In "Clearing" Jim Ewing shares his insights and gives tools for tending to spaces (lands and buildings) that need energetic clearing. He teaches readers how to return to their core, awaken their intuition, and become efficient stewards of our energetically charged surroundings. Learn how to recognize zones where stagnant and dead energies are blocking the natural flow of life. This book teaches how to partner with the earth spirits by using healing intentions and powerful affirmation statements. Jim Ewing is a respected teacher/shaman with exceptional heart and wisdom. His heart beats in a rhythm that instinctively coincides with nature. Jim's teachings will help you find the "Stillpoint" that resides within you.

I have known PathFinder for several years now, and have always found his words to be filled with the knowledge and truth passed down from the Ancestors. The information and instruction that PathFinder passes on to the reader can be utilized by all people wishing to surround themselves with positive energy and create their own sacred spaces. Jon Whitebear on space clearing, but have read several books downstream from this one on the subject. I believe that Ewing gives a very straightforward prescription on this practice, and I intend to give it a go in my house. I recommend the book particularly to those who may be leaning toward native american traditions. That isn't my leaning, but I enjoyed the information anyway and I believe that Mr. Ewing is very much in earnest.

I'm a beginner in learning of the Native American culture, traditions and practices. This is the second book I've read by Jim Pathfinder which is guiding me to a new spiritual life. Jim Pathfinder teaches in this book easy ways to do Smudging and what to use to do it with, and along with that he explains how you can rattle, and even what you can make yourself to rattle with to help with clearing negative energies out of you life. This book on CLEARING, is a very Spiritual instruction to help Heal Mother Earth and Ourselves.

Pathfinder gives an excellent explanation of learning to see the reality that we are seldom aware of in our hurry up world of science and "if I cant touch it and explain it it doesn't exist" In our society we talk of sick building syndrome. Here is a spiritual way to clear our lands and buildings of the very essence of that sickness. In doing so we can begin to heal ourselves and our earth.

This was a great beginning guide to help me work with the lands and buildings around where I live to release stuck energies, which have become negative. The only bad energy is the energy that is stuck. By helping to release this energy, balance flows in and things become renewed and pleasant again.

I found this a good culmination of a lot of good practices I use myself and feel it would be great for any beginning student or refresher for those in the shamanic practices.

This book is very easy to read and understand. I would recommend this to everyone wanting information about clearing your home.
