Mecca: From Before Genesis Until Now

Synopsis

In this, one of his last works, Martin Lings discusses the significance of the pilgrimage to Mecca, made annually by several million Muslims, in the light of the tradition of Abraham. Drawing upon his own experience of performing the pilgrimage first in 1946 and then in 1978, as well referring to the traditional sources, he considers the timeless spiritual meaning of the Hajj, which was proclaimed and established by Abraham and Ishmael and renewed by the Prophet Muhammad, in the context of its long history and comes to some surprising conclusions.

Martin Lings seems to have extracted peices from his other book "Mohammed". If one has read that, then this is a kind of repetition. Else read this as it is a good recount of the history of the Kaaba, together with dates and other stories of interest. Good for those who are looking for information in a nutshell.

I think that the author of this book is trying to tell you what many Muslims who knows their religion are trying to explained for 1400 years, that Islam is the Religion of all prophets of God if you believe in him, even if don't read it and at least you will have some positive information's which are in the Bible and in the Qur'an and stop the competition about who is the greater between the Prophets and concentrate on the prophet's messages (all prophets said that God is the Greater in Hebrew Alah, Ale, in Islam Allah which means God in English,if you read the Arabic Bible you will find He's name to Elah meaning God In the Qur'an Allah meaning the God, so tell the difference if you'r an honest person.

Let down not enough historical information that I expected, yet the writer has several good books to his credits.

Priced too high!

This is a really well written and informative book that is good for a whole gamut of readers.
