Synopsis

USA TODAY & #1 BESTSELLING AUTHOR & ONE OF THE BEST NEW VOICES IN THE ACTION THRILLER GENRE & David Archer is back with a vengeance with his newest hero, Noah Wolf. After fans raved about his debut series, The Sam Prichard Novels, Archer now is about to back even harder. People are already throwing out names like Mitch Rapp and Alex Cross, but don't take my word for it. See what all the fuss is about before Archer becomes a household name! USA TODAY BESTSELLING SERIES Noah Wolf is one of the world's most deadly assassins, completely devoid of emotion and conscience. These factors, which others would consider to be handicaps, allow him to evaluate situation instantly, and from a purely logical standpoint. His decisions and actions are never tainted by emotion or feelings, which frees him from any risk of fear or guilt. When Team Camelot is handed an unusual mission to rescue the abducted daughter of a foreign president, Noah and the rest go into it with confidence, and are quickly successful. Back home, they are ready to celebrate, but something doesn't feel right. The mission was too easy, and there are indicators that someone may have discovered who they are and tracked them back to Neverland. Noah's house is entered while the team is away, and he is unable to shake the feeling that the mission was nothing but a ruse to expose E & E. It doesn't take long for him to decide that they must return to the field, their new mission to track down a Russian counterpart of their own Allison Peterson. Nicolaich Andropov has marked Noah for termination, so Noah decides to use himself as bait to draw the man into a trap. Unfortunately, Andropov is known as a ghost, a man whose appearance is unknown, able to move in absolute secrecy and remain several steps ahead of any who pursue him. When Noah fails to recognize this fact, Sarah becomes a hostage and pawn in a battle to the death. There's only one tiny chance to save her, but it will mean Noah must go unarmed and alone to meet his nemesis. The game is on, with his own life and Sarah's as the prize.

Just a great read. Spoiler alert. This one starts in the African nation of Mauritania. There is a meeting between the American Ambassador Morganstern and a tall blond young American he knows as Mr. Alexander Colson and his assistant Mr. Starling. Morganstern has set up a meeting between Colson and President Habib of Mauritania. Why? Seems someone kidnapped his daughter and to recover her he will have to align himself with Russia and Syria which is something he would never do under ordinary circumstances. Habib and his administration are firmly allied with the US. The kidnapers have issued an ultimatum and Colson and his crew will have sixteen days to recover her. Of course Mr. Colson is Noah Wolf and he and his team of Neil Blessing Team Camelot's computer expert, Moose Conway Noah's back up muscle and Sarah Child the expert driver for the team and Noah's sex partner on occasion. His team also includes a retired FBI agent named Stanley Decker who's a real investigator and will come in handy to investigate this kidnapping since none of Noah's team are detectives. The only real lead they have is the man who made the call to Habib. Turns out he's in the UK so the UK will be their first port of call. They find out his name is Jeremey Pendergrast and it seems he's done this kind of thing before. He's the first lead they have. On arrival in the UK Noah meets with Catherine Potts who is their contact. She will rent a country place for them. A place Pendergrast will be taken to once Neil and his team capture him. Noah will be having a talk with the man. A talk that will lead them to Russia. So begins another fine Camelot read.
