Order Of Reason *OP (Mage The Sorcerers Crusade)

Synopsis

Born in a dark age, the Order of Reason stretches from the palaces of Cathay to ships bound for new and wondrous world. Like beacons in a storm, the Eight Conventions of Daedalus guide mankind to a higher state. But there are many enemies in the Order of Reason itself! While wizards and mortals alike cut one another's throats, the Order stands like a fortress. But what secret do its battlements conceal? This book takes you inside the castle: to the Artisan's forges, the Skyrigger's decks, the Guildsman's court and the Razor's gilded mirror.

Customer Reviews

This book, while interesting, just isn't up to the level of the books before it. The introduction of the meta plot by White Wolf, along with making the game that much darker, dampens my enthusiasm for this title. However, it does include some interesting ideas, and the exploration of the Order of Reason is a good addition. I do miss Phil Brucato's fine way with the game, though.

I love the order of reason..I can't believe that they where not in the mage the ascention handbook. This book has every thing you will need for mage the socerors crusade.
