I love murder mysteries and this would of been a good one. Unfortunately the writer added graphic details of child rape and molestation that had NOTHING to do with the story line at all. It was not at all part of the mystery plot and made the book turn my stomach. . I wanted a murder mystery without a description of a pointless disgusting very detailed scene of the raping of a child and graphic detail of another small child being molested :(Will be skipping any other books by this author.

Couldn't finish this. The crimes were way too violent and explicit for my taste. Also this book was not well edited: words transposed, words omitted; sloppy.

Explicit details of horror page after page were simply too much for me. I quit reading after three chapters. The descriptions of various murders came too often with not enough buffer between.

In my opinion, the book, or this edited version of the book, was very poorly written. Sentence structure and grammar was awful! I didn't take the time to see if this was a translated piece, but if so, the translator didn't know the English language very well.

The writing was at best, pedestrian. There are many mistakes in grammar and word usage. The story is too preposterous. Every gruesome human failing is included even though it adds nothing to the story. The fact that she sells books at all says a lot about the intellectual level of the reading public. This book is just dreadful!

I agree with other readers too much graphic descriptions of cannibalism and child molestation which did not add to the story. Unlike some readers I didn't even find the ending surprising, I thought it was pretty obvious. There was in fact no mystery as the past and present ran together throughout the story. I'm actually surprised that I even finished the book but I wouldn't recommend it to friends and I won't read another book by this author. This is a horror story not a true mystery and frankly the whole plot was quite unbelievable.

Willow Rose may have produced another top notch mystery series. Her Rebekka Franck books are outstanding (though still anxiously waiting the final book) and now the Emma Frost series is off to the same suspenseful and exciting start. I will not give a synopsis as you can get that from the book page, but let me say great character development and never a dull moment. Highly recommend this book.

I JUST FINISHED THE REBEKKA FRANCK SERIES AND WAS SORRY TO SEE IT END. I WAS LOOKING FOR A NEW SERIES. READ ITSY BITSY SPIDER YESTERDAY. I ENJOYED IT SO
