Brentlee Johnson was head over heels in love with Bates since she was a young teenager, and thought they would be together forever. When he left for Marine Boot Camp, he cut all ties with her, thinking it would be better for her to move on. But he broke her heart completely, which left her partying too much, and sleeping around to get over him. Brentlee finally settled down, and let her parents talk her into marrying a man that she didn't love, and it turned into a nightmare. Brentlee has been physically abused since after the honeymoon, and has never been brave enough to leave him, until the day he crossed a line she couldn't ignore. So she finally turns to her sister, Kentlee, who's married to the president of the Notorious Devils MC, Fury. When she meets them, she's shocked to run into the man she never stopped loving. Bates "Sniper" Lukin became a member of the Notorious Devils MC, after retiring from the marines, and has never stopped thinking about that girl he left behind. The demons he now battles on a daily basis, has him convinced that he's not good enough for her anymore. But when she escapes her nightmare husband to get help on his turf, he becomes determined to protect her, and fix what he broke in the process. Will he be able to convince her to give a second chance? This author is simply EPIC! She will ever be my girl crush, plus there isn't a book of hers out that I didn't love every minute of, and I've read them ALL! The character development is fantastic, and the colorful cast of secondaries are perfect in all their rough glory. Simmering chemistry that made me jealous, quickly ignited into FIERY FLAMES of panty meltin' to ashes, sexy scene goodness that was never enough.
