This book is a great intro for all of us to awaken our third eyes. It's possible for anyone to pick this up and learn right away, but I think beginners would benefit most from this book. I definitely feel a difference with my peace and connection with the universe after utilizing the techniques in this book!

I was drawn to this book because I had heard about the Third Eye and knew that those who experienced an awakening benefited spiritually. I like the book because there are techniques that the author uses to successfully activate the Third Eye. The techniques are simple and easy to do. Although I would have liked to see more information about when one should open the Third Eye, it's a good introduction to this ancient and mysterious meditation method. I found myself trying some steps in the car while I was waiting for someone. Although I haven't activated the Third Eye yet, I feel hopeful that it will come one day soon.

For whatever length of time that I can recollect that I have dependably been an aficionado of the extraordinary. I put stock in the third eye and in everything powerful. It began when I was a child and I had a companion who could see those that were not unmistakable to the stripped eye. She was honored with the third eye. I've for the longest time been itching to experience what she could encounter in spite of the apprehension it ingrained in me. Jon's book is an extraordinary reference to the third eye. The five stages he has shared are unquestionably worth attempting!

The Idea of third eye involves the usage of your intuition, Imagination and super concentration to imagine the invisible in this supernatural method, the book opens up on how to attain the Astral Travel with the usage of creativity to attain the desired state. The third eye idea can be attained if your mind is ready for the experience.

I liked the detailed and easy to follow mediation practices and actually found the portal technique of awakening energy, super effective. This stuff may sound loopy to many people, but the impact of it is great. This books is a pretty insightful approach into harnessing the positive and effective energies in us. I have been doing a lot of reading about energy reading, awareness and presence, and this book give a very unique and traditional approach to that.

This guidebook is informative and helpful. By reading this book I have come to know lots of information about the third eye. Inside of this book the author has described about how to open my third eye and enhance my psychic abilities. This guidebook is informative and helpful.
