Customer Reviews

I am still confused. Some of the characters from previous books . Who was Sebastian? I read all the other books and don't remember. Also Ma Chivers - what did she say to Jill at the end of the last book and what actions did she have that would make Jill suspicious. It seems Jill has become a little space. She did not call the sign man immediately as she would do. Is Bella in her new home? Too many holes in the plots.

Do not buy. I have kindle unlimited and have enjoyed this series. It's light and fun. I enjoy the characters. I was excited for the next book and so disappointed. There is almost no mystery or story advancement in this book. So little progress that while I'll happily read her next book, I can't imagine that I wouldn't be able to follow the story having not read this book.

This is a fun series. The author has developed the characters very well. The story isn't becoming boring, she adds enough new people and situations to keep it interesting. Not so many they are hard to keep track of. Looking forward to the next in the series.

Abbott is a great writer. Winky is one of my favorite characters - always full of sarcasm. Overall I truly enjoy reading all of the books in this series. I just actually pre-ordered the next book so I can't wait to see what happens.

I honestly did not think this would be as good as the other 12 books, but it was! So Jack and Jill (went up the hill) are now living together, which Jill is finding hard to keep her "witchy secret" under wraps. Winky the talking cat is still as funny as ever.. The banter is still in full force, making me "cackle" with delight. I really enjoyed reading this book, it was well written, storyline was excellent, and the characters get better as the books go on! This is most definitely worth 5 stars! #2OCCAB

The basic storyline is interesting.. female PI suddenly becomes a witch and moves between two worlds that must not meet. The whole relationship with Jack is disjointed- they go from occasionally seeing one another to living together in a new home? How she "solves" each mystery is unreal. Disappointed that I put my time in this series, done.

This series is really hit and miss and this one was a miss. The plot was pretty thin, scattered, and the main character was downright nasty in spots. She is becoming more and more unlikable as this series goes on.

This series is undeniably cute and sometimes a little funny, but at 13 or so books with little in the way of character development, it is starting to pall. The light mystery included in each is usually not enough to keep one attentive. About the only reason to keep reading at this point is that several plot threads have been dangling since the early books keep you just mad enough to keep turning pages. The fact that the series is on kindle unlimited is all that is keeping it going for me.
