Synopsis

Gulen echoes the great teacher Rumi by telling us not to ignore the doctrine of causes, not to sit around heedlessly waiting for God's favor, but rather to continuously exert ourselves in order to transform this broken world into a world of peace and justice, in accordance with the Will of God. He neither denies reality by turning his back on modernity, nor does he fall into bitterness, incomprehension and fury. His message is essentially a message of peace and hope, a message that is best conveyed in The Statue of Our Souls.

M. Fethullah Gülen's vision for the future is an inspiring hope, where peace and justice are maintained in the world. This is a promise in the divine revelation for the "righteous," who are expected to be the driving force in reaching this goal. Attaining this rank, however, requires that they be ordained with certain qualifications and virtues as once manifested to the highest degree in Islamic civilization. In this book, Gülen reminds us of these virtues and shows the path that those lofty souls have followed in the past, leaving behind exceptional models.

A scholar that combines science with faith, heart with soul, His book not only takes you to the heights of the hearts with revivals examples in Islamic civilizations but also underlines the pure and crystal clear personalities of individuals. He envisions such a beautiful and peaceful world that every one lives in serenity and peacefully, and he imagines and draws the map of that world possible through righteousness, clear intention and mind and trustworthy. Author defines subjects relating to our daily lives such as tolerance, understanding each other through respect and love, civilization, ideal Generation, The World we long for, the world in the womb and other interesting articles. is a one of the masterpieces of Gulen's early works will change readers perspective and broaden the horizon, which I found myself in words and thoughts.
