Alien Prince: (Bride Of Qetesh) An Alien SciFi Romance

Synopsis

Lorelei Vauss gets more than she bargained for when she sneaks aboard a transport vessel headed for Earth. All she wanted was a chance to escape the intergalactic embassy ship where sheâ™d lived for every minute of her twenty-five years. Instead, the transportâ™s co-pilot double-crosses them, intercepting a Kaldeeri slaver ship and selling the female passengers to the Quarter Moon thugs. Lorelei manages to escape from the slavers before they can sell her to a brothel, but only by crash landing an escape pod in the worst possible place: a Qulari princeâ™s self-imposed exile. For his part, Calder Fevâ™rosk wants nothing to do with the arrogant but beautiful young woman he rescued from the rubble, but the only way to keep the slavers from claiming her again is to marry herâ and prove that itâ™s for real. What starts as a marriage of convenience takes a turn for the worse when Lorelei has a chance to return to the Kaldeeri and rescue the other women. It will mean leaving Qetesh and thrusting Calder back into his rightful role as prince, a role he never wanted. But does she love himâ and herselfâ enough to do what has to be done? *BONUS BOOK: This book also contains Alien Alpha (Qetesh Warrior), the first book in the Qetesh series. Both of these are standalone, HEA Romances!

Customer Reviews

I was given a complimentary copy of this book in return for an honest review. Calder Fev'rosk is a priest dedicated to the well being of his people. Calder finds himself in a crisis of faith as he attends to the passing of his mother, the final female (and queen) of the Qetesh. He is lost to his grief, and resigns his position at the temple. Lorelei Vauss is a space brat; born and raised on the Atria, a deep space faring vessel. Lorelei has an unquenchable to leave the ship and go to Earth, her ancestral planet. Lorelei reaches out to Teldana, a ship's captain and convinces Teledana to smuggle Lorelei off the Atria and start her on her journey to Earth. Space slavers capture Teledana's ship and take all the women on board as slaves, to be sold to the highest bidder, either for breeding purposes or brothels. Lorelei is determined to escape, and elicits a promise from each of the women that whomever manages to escape, will help free the remaining women. During a disturbance, Lorelei makes a break for it, and finds an escape pod. The slavers attempt to prevent Lorelei from escaping, but in doing so, damage the pod. The pod launches with massive damage and quickly draining life support. Crash landing on the planet, Lorelei is rescued by Calder. Sparks fly almost from the first, as each has to come to terms with their emotions. Lorelei is adamant she must save the other women, and Calder is unsure what he can do. Did Lorelei flee the slavers to a worse fate, or was she running headlong into her destiny?

I really liked this story about a woman named Lorelie who had been raised aboard the Star ship Atria. It's all she has ever know and she wants to visit earth to learn about her culture. She is kidnapped by the Keldeeri and is about to be sold as a sex slave. The Prince in the story is Calder Fev'Rosk. I won't go into more detail as it would be a huge spoiler to do so. Needless to say, the storyline is flowing and exciting. The love story is everything you want. Love and angst and a happily ever after. I can't believe the price. It was well worth more. I was given this arc for an honest review.

If you'd walked up and said "hey, aliens are hot," I would have to raise a skeptical eyebrow. Alien-human romance? Uh, okay. But I LOVED this book! It's like the best parts of romance combined with the best parts of sci-fi, and everything about it is super hot. Juniper Leigh is an incredible storyteller, and she keeps you guessing and engaged from cover to cover.

This book felt a little hard to pin down. It was engaging in some places and really slow in a lot of the book. It felt like you were plopped down in this world and that you clearly were missing information if you did not read the first book. (They are noted as standalone books. But I had not read the first one and I was completely lost in who is who in the alien systems for a good part of the book.) The problem I had with the book was the heroine she seemed to have several different personalities and none of them particularly appealing. Her motivations and actions were not really clear and it makes it hard to connect with her as a character. SPOILERISH stuff following: Example being her escape were are not really given a sense that she had any military training and she suddenly can engineer her escape. But she turns around and is completely useless on the world she crash landed on. The author does a nice job explaining the hero's motivations, but the action scenes felt a little routine and not particularly innovative. The book was an okay read for me but it took me a while to read through it because it never caught my attention. I was given a complimentary copy of this book in return for an honest review.

Title: Alien Prince: (Bride of Qetesh) Note: 2 books in this package. This book also contains Alien Alpha (Qetesh Warrior), the first book in the Qetesh series. Both of these are standalone, HEA Romances. Author: Juniper Leigh This is my review of Alien Prince. I bought this book through . This is 2 books in what I hope is a series. This book is the story of Lorelei Vauss who gets attacked and grabbed by slavers when she sneaks aboard a transport heading to Earth. She manages to escape the slave ship but ends up crash landing on a primitive planet named Qetesh and saved by a man who was once a Priest, and Prince, to his people. Calder Fevâ™rosk saves her, helps her, and marries her to keep the slavers from taking her back and returns to his people as King with a new Queen at his side. But can he keep her? Will she stay with him? Will she manage to save the other girls that were kidnapped with her? Will Lorelei help save the people of Qetesh who have lost all of the females of their kind and are on the brink of extinction? Also included is Alien Alpha (Qetesh Warrior). This story shows you the beginning of how the Qetesh people started to try to save their people by mating other species. Will the women sent to his planet help? And why is the woman that he finds in the escape pod not there out of her own free will? This is a great story that tells you the beginning of the breeding program and of the Qetesh saga. I did not like how the chapters switched back and forth from their different views and found myself having to read the title of each chapter in order to make sure I knew who was talking but other than that it was a great book.
