Customer Reviews

The book is intriguing and captivating. The story draws you to the life of people of Donbridge. Mysterious events happen to its residents that are somehow connected to their ancestors that lived there hundreds years ago. Dark forces, shady personalities, brave heroes, sacrifices, love and adventure are just some things that transpire in the story. It also connects to modern time with some of the characters of Donbridge getting older and having grandchildren. It's a great book to read for both children and adults. The family recipes at the end are a nice bonus.

I bought this series of books for my Granddaughter. I had to preview them to find out if they were too scary for a 9 year old. I thought the books were well written, suspenseful, and the characters were well developed to the point I could picture them in my mind. I found the characters charming, unpredictable and very believable. I just hope he continues telling the stories his Grandmother told him so we can all enjoy them. I can't wait for the next one so I can continue with my "Previewing" the series. My granddaughter found them a little scary, so we put them up for a year or so and then I will start out reading them to her to get her adapted to the genre. I'm hoping she likes them as much as her Granny did.

This collection of stories invites you into a world where the characters and settings are so well described you can picture it all in your mind. In each story you become attached to the characters and look forward to reading more! Highly recommend!

Continuing in the vein of traditional oral recounting of legendary tales, RD Vincent has collected the stories his grandmother told him and reformed them into these riveting short story volumes with beautiful covers and added bonuses, such as recipes. Great choice for those who enjoy American folk legends.

Great stories, captivating characters and wonderful settings for these large legends. These great stories were hard to put down! I think readers of many ages will love these tales that are ageless! Hope to read more by this author!

A wonderful collection of intermingled, stories. Very well written, kept me turning the pages - I didn't want to put it down. RD Vincent made me giggle and cry in these three stories. A satisfying read.

A collection of short stories that take you back into a world slightly mysterious. A great folklore for everyone to enjoy. I can imagine myself sitting around the table listening to these stories and wondering what part is really true and what part might be a bit more tall tale. Like the telephone game we played as kids!

I received a free ARC copy for my honest review. I absolutely adored this book. The author's writing sucked me in and held my attention the whole way through. I cannot recommend this book enough. Brilliant characters and engaging story. A definite must read!
